Day 2 | Little Petra – Petra Back Door Trail – Camp in Petra

Fuel up early before embarking on a full day of trailblazing discovery with your licensed expert guide and escort driver. The day begins at Little Petra, a quiet Nabataean enclave once used to host caravans along ancient trade routes. Your guide will walk you through its rock-hewn facades and fresco-lined chambers before continuing by shuttle vehicle to the Back Door Trail trailhead – bypassing the dry initial section and getting you straight into the heart of the wilderness. From there, begin your 2–3 hour hike along this scenic, off-the-beaten-path route. The trail winds through dramatic sandstone canyons, natural rock bridges, and elevated plateaus before revealing one of Petra’s grandest sights: the awe-inspiring Monastery (Ad-Deir). Arriving via the back entrance allows for a quieter, more intimate experience of this ancient marvel. Your guide will then lead you deeper into Petra’s main city, exploring highlights such as the Royal Tombs, Colonnaded Street, Silk Tomb, The Treasury, and The Siq with ample time for interpretation and reflection.

By late afternoon, reconnect with your escort/driver and transfer back to your desert camp in Petra for a second night. Enjoy another hearty, locally inspired dinner, followed by an evening of stargazing in the tranquil desert air. The familiar surroundings of your camp offer a welcome return and a peaceful end to a day of ancient wonder.
